

National Agency For Supporting Youth's Employment ANSEJ

ANSEJ is a public organism under the aegis of the ministry of labour, Employment and social security.

ANSEJ's mission is to apply a device with an economic approach, which aims to coach the youth unemployed to create and extend micro business in production of goods and services.

The ANSEJ aims to spread the entrepreneurial spirit, offers financial aids and fiscal advantages during the whole coaching phases.

in this framework, ANSEJ coordinates with the public banks and all the actors in the local and national level.

Promoter's eligibility conditions

- His age should be between 19 and 40 years old,
- He must have professional qualification in relation with his projects,
- He must be jobless,
- He must have a personal contribution according to the project evaluation.

Coaching phases

Project idea - reception and device - project's elaboration - validation by the project's selection, approval and financing committee - bank agreement - training of promoter - starting activity - following up activity .

